What's my region? Find out where you compete

Eleven of the Queensland Training Awards categories will be contested across seven regional finals in July — meaning 231 exceptional regional finalists will be celebrated state wide.

Regional award categories:

- Harry Hauenschild Apprentice of the Year
- Bob Marshman Trainee of the Year
- Vocational Student of the Year
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Student of the Year
- School-based Apprentice or Trainee of the Year
- Equity Student of the Year

- VET Teacher or Trainer of the Year
- Community Training Initiative of the Year
- Small Employer of the Year
- Medium Employer of the Year
- Large Employer of the Year.

But which region do you compete in? Tropical North Queensland, North Queensland, or North Coast? Where's the Central Queensland boundary? Can you choose between Metropolitan, South East Queensland, or Darling Downs South West? (Spoiler: No.).

Your region is determined by the category you're entering and your location.

Our 'identify your region' page makes it easy - just check the suburb you live in and enter it in the search tool to find out.

Find your region and take the next step toward recognition.

Why nominate early?

Starting your nomination early gives you more time to craft strong responses to the selection criteria — helping you or your nominee truly showcase how vocational education and training has shaped their journey and future goals.

Here's how to get started:

1. Check the eligibility criteria and register an account on the awards portal.
2. Use the drafting template to outline key achievements and refine your responses over time.
3. Tell your story — where you've been, what you've achieved, and where you're headed.

4. Get inspired with tips and examples from past winners in the Five Easy Steps to Enter guide.
