Top tips

We have 14 award categories, seven for individuals and seven for organisations, but if you are unsure where to start, then check the eligibility and selection criteria to find the best fit for you.

- Find your region – use our region identification tool by entering your suburb.

- Use the Drafting Template – map out your key points and polish your responses over time.
- Gather your best bits – add documents, photos, testimonials, and anything that showcases your achievements.
- Tell your story – share your journey, wins, and future goals. Make it personal and let your passion for vocational education and training shine.
- Check out past winners – get inspired by previous finalists and winners

We are here to support you — please reach out to your regional or state QTA coordinator if you need assistance.

Good luck to all Queensland Training Awards nominees

With nominations closing soon, we want to take a moment to say thank you for staying connected through QTA News.

No matter the outcome, taking the time to reflect on your achievements and commitment to excellence in training and skills development is an accomplishment in itself.

We hope you'll stay engaged with QTA News for updates, success stories, and future opportunities to get involved.

We wish you the very best of luck as your nomination is considered. Finalists will be announced soon — so stay tuned!

The Queensland Government respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the lands and seas from across Queensland.

We pay our respects to Elders past, present and emerging for they hold the memories, the traditions, the culture and hopes of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people across the state.
